COUNTRY MUSIC, VAUDVILLE, AND COMMUNITY BAND AT YOUR CHARLOTTE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Charlotte, MI, September 28, 2015– Your Charlotte Performing Arts Center is busy with a wide variety of performances for your enjoyment this week!

Wednesday night, October 7 at 7:30 the Eaton County Sheriff Department Mounted Division will be hosting a benefit concert featuring country artist David Frizzell. One of the greatest voices in country music with a raw, forlorn quality that is essential to the interpretation of traditional country themes, David Frizzell's work includes #1 hits "You're The Reason God Made Oklahoma" (featured in the soundtrack to the Clint Eastwood movie Any Which Way You Can) and "I'm Gonna Hire a Wino to Decorate Our Home." David has appeared on Hee Haw, Nashville Now, CMA and ACM Music Awards and onstage at Grand Ol' Opry.

On Thursday, October 8 at 7:30pm, the Charlotte Community Band kicks off their 2015-16 season with a performance at Your Charlotte Performing Arts Center. This concert is a free concert.

The Eaton Area Senior Center will present the Maple City Vaudeville Revue on Sunday, October 11th at 3:00pm. Featuring a variety of local performers – including dance, skits, vocal and instrumental music – you are sure to be transported in laughter back through the years to when vaudeville ruled the Great White Way. Advance tickets are $10.00 for adults and $5.00 for students. And available at your Charlotte Performing Arts Center Box Office and online anytime at www.charlotteperformingartscenter.com
