CHS Oriole PRIDE Drawing Winners

Oriole PRIDE (Purpose, Respect, Integrity, Dedication, and Excellence) is going strong at Charlotte High School, and students and staff continue celebrate success.

For the week of 10/12, Lizzy Phillips won a bag chair from Eaton Federal for showing purpose.

For the week of 10/19, Savannah Struble won an Oriole visor and foam finger, donated by the CHS athletic department for showing purpose, respect, integrity, dedication, and excellence.

For the week of 10/26, Austin Tropp won a Ferris State University drawstring bag, along with an Oriole scarf, donated by CHS, and two free beverages, donated by Charlotte Biggby.

Also for the week of 10/26, which was college application week, Paige Goff was the winner of a special drawing for seniors who showed purpose by applying to at least one college. Paige won two tickets to the Michigan State vs. Maryland football game on November 14th.

Congratulations CHS students and Go Orioles! Oriole Pride!
