Charlotte Upper Elementary focuses on the Joy of Sharing

The Charlotte Upper Elementary (CUE) is celebrating the month of December with activities emphasizing the “Joy of Sharing”. Students have been donating food goods, personal care items, and toys for the Christmas Kiddies. Last month, the Student Store, gave a check to the Christmas Kiddies. This month, the store’s organizers asked a representative from the Siren/Eaton Shelter to come to the school and share their mission. Mrs. Kineman’s class, which runs the store, listened to Martha Miller as she told of the homeless that the shelter assists. In one night, they learned, there could be as many as 111 people being sheltered by this agency. To help feed and care for these people, the store presented Mrs. Miller with a check for $200.00. She was very grateful and emphasized how the students are learning a life lesson about sharing with others. What better way to celebrate the season. Oriole Pride!
