Charlotte Students Learn Through First Hand Experiences

Charlotte Upper Elementary students in Mrs. Jewell's fourth grade class recently had a guest speaker. Mr. Chris Tapscott, an Australian native. He talked to the students about his experience during a unit on immigration in Social Studies class. Mr. Tapscott told stories from his childhood in Australia, and even shared photos of his pet kangaroo! He also discussed differences between the two countries and his reasons for immigrating to the United States. Students were allowed to ask questions and at the end of the presentation enjoyed a sampling of Australian chocolate. Mrs. Jewell's class was enthusiastic about the opportunity to learn about immigration firsthand from Mr. Tapscott!
