CHS Students Continue to Show Oriole PRIDE

Over the last few weeks, CHS students have continued to show their Oriole PRIDE, and the school has celebrated that success with drawings for prizes.

Josh Kayne showed purpose and dedication, and he won a free trial membership to SNAP Fitness and a SNAP Fitness water bottle.

Brianna Skowronski showed excellence, and she won an athletic booster prize pack, donated by the Charlotte Optimist Club.

Kaitlin Hammons showed dedication, and she won two tickets to a show at Your Charlotte Performing Arts Center.

Destiny Stableton showed excellence, and she won two tickets to a Charlotte Performing Arts Center show as well.

Michelle McCune showed purpose, and she won a foam finger and lanyard.

Rayanna Demello showed dedication and excellence, and she also won a foam finger and lanyard.

Congratulations and GO ORIOLES!
