

#CharlotteRising

Revitalizing OUR Community

It started from a mere "buzz about town" -- now, it's an echoing chant...Charlotte is rising!

This community has and is accomplishing something that is often very challenging to do...and that is to not simply talk the talk, but moreover walk the walk. Through hard work, collaboration, and hope for what is to come, this community has proven the "buzz about town" to be tangible.

Masonic Temple Apartments
Beach Market Renovation
Christensen's Building
The Hall
Michigan Main Street Program
Whistlepig BBQ
County Lake (Crandall Lake)
For the Love of Cities
LoveCharlotte
Parking Lot Project
Pocket Park
Charlotte IGA Redevelopment Ready Test Case
and the list goes on and on!

We have worked hard as a community, and we deserve an hour to recognize how far we have come, celebrating together the recent accomplishments, current happenings, and future plans of #CharlotteRising and this community.

Please spread the word about this fun celebration! Special thanks to The Hall for hosting! Food, a cash bar, and music by Brandon McCoy will be sure to make the evening special!

For the Love of Cities

This community is excited to bring Peter Kageyama to Charlotte! Peter is an exceptional author and speaker, traveling across the country focused around the theme of his awarded book, "For the Love of Cities."

Peter looks at what makes cities lovable, what motivates citizens to do extraordinary things for their places and how some cities use that energy to fill in the gaps that “official” city makers have left when resources disappear. Peter speaks about how we can turn peoples’ emotional engagement with their place into tangible action and use that excitement and energy as a much needed community development resource.

Please stay tuned for more details about his visit from Oct. 3-4 and how we all can benefit from his leadership!
