Charlotte's Washington Elementary Welcomes Ms. Field

Charlotte Public Schools' Washington Elementary would like to welcome Jessica Field as a new 1st grade teacher. Ms. Field grew up in Flushing, MI and decided to become a teacher at the age of seven. In 2010, she graduated from Central Michigan University with a Bachelor's of Science in Elementary Education, with a major in Language Arts. Ms. Field's teaching experiences range from 3rd grade through 8th grade. The past three years she has worked for Kalamazoo Public Schools as a middle school ELA teacher. In addition, Ms. Field has been attending Western Michigan University as a graduate student for the past two years. She will be graduating with her Master's Degree in Literacy Studies this coming December. Ms. Field shared, "I am eager and enthusiastic to be working at Washington Elementary. Everyone in Charlotte has been extremely welcoming and I feel lucky to be a part of your district and community." Welcome to the Oriole family Ms. Field!
