MUSIC IS IN THE AIR THIS NOVEMBER AT YOUR CHARLOTTE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Charlotte, MI, October 24, 2016—This November your Charlotte Performing Arts Center will be filled with music of all sorts:

The month kicks off with the Charlotte High School Drama Department's production of Disney's The Little Mermaid on November 4 at 7:00 pm and November 5 and 6 at 3:00 pm. The beloved children's story and feature animated movie will come alive on stage. Join Ariel as she makes a deal for legs with the evil Ursula the Sea Witch to become Part of Your World. She gives up her voice in a deal that trades her tail for legs. Helped by her colorful friends including Sebastian the crab and Flounder, Ariel leaves her life Under the Sea for her life on land with the handsome Prince Eric, who struggles just to Kiss the Girl. Your family is sure to enjoy every minute of this colorful and upbeat live theatrical musical production. Advance tickets are $12.00 Adult, $10.00 Senior (62 & up) and $6.00 Student. All tickets will be $15.00 at the door.

Thursday, November 10 at 7:30pm, join the Charlotte High School Concert and Symphony Bands as they salute those past and present who have served our nation with their annual Veterans Day Concert. This program is free admission for all, so come show your gratitude and support for our nation's veterans.

Friday, November 12 at 7:30 pm, the Auto Owners Insurance Premiere Artist Series presents The Gordon Lightfoot Tribute. A night of romantic ballads and songs including such standards as "If You Could Read My Mind," "Canadian Railroad Trilogy," "Sundown," "Carefree Highway," "Rainy Day People," and of course "The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald." A stunning theatrical show that replicates the Lightfoot concert experience and timeless music that captivated millions during the 1960s, 1970s, and 1980s. Tickets are just $15 - $20.

Wrapping up the month of music on November 17 at 7:00 pm, the Charlotte Upper Elementary 6th Grade Band students will make their debut on stage. This concert is free admission.

Tickets and more information for these events is available Monday through Friday from 9 am – Noon at your Charlotte Performing Arts Center box office (378 State Street in Charlotte) or by phone at 517-541-5690. They are also available anytime online at www.CharlottePerformingArtsCenter.com
