Charlotte Community Recreation Men's Basketball league

The 2017 Charlotte Men's Basketball League wrapped up this past Sunday with several great playoff games. Mike Colegrove and his team "Mike's Squad" took down "8-Men Stout" led by Caleb Buhs in the semifinals and held on to an early lead to take the B-Division championship against the "Harbauglers" and their captain Chad McClintock. In the A-Division, "Next Level" defeated "The D League" led by Travis VanAlstine in their semifinal game and captain Ryan Mead hit a jump shot in the final seconds to give them a one point victory over team "Campbell" in the championship game. Next up will be 4-on-4 coed volleyball that will be played on Sunday evenings beginning April 16. Registration and additional information is available on the Community Recreation Facebook page, www.facebook.com/CharlotteCommunityRecreation.
