Charlotte Aquatic Center Hosts Annual Daddy Daughter Dance

On the weekend of February 20 and February 21 about 320 couples packed the Charlotte Middle School Cafetorium for the annual Daddy Daughter Dance hosted by the Charlotte Aquatic Center. The night of fun included a disc jockey, dancing, refreshments, and complimentary pictures for each couple. Many of the young ladies danced until their shoes had to come off, and some needed to be carried out to their cars by dad at the night's end.

The event was staffed primarily by volunteers from the Charlotte Aquatic Center staff, members of Charlotte varsity swim team, CHS National Honor Society members, and community supporters. This year, over 120 dozen cookies were baked, bought, and donated for the event.

One of the volunteers was Bruce Baker, a 2015 Charlotte High graduate and current Olivet College student. "It's a cool event the Aquatic Center puts on each year," he said. "It's great to see involvement with dads, family, and friends supporting and having fun with the young women in their lives." Bruce and 20 other volunteers helped to make this year's dance one of the best.

The Charlotte Aquatic Center hosts the Daddy Daughter Dance every February. For information and online registration for Aquatic Center programs, please visit registration.swimcharlotte.org or call 541-5740.
