CHARLOTTE HIGH SCHOOL BPA STUDENTS ATTEND FALL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Five members of the Business Professionals of America (BPA) Charlotte Chapter attended the Fall Leadership Conference held at the Lansing Center. The student members attended seminars and workshops that will help lead the chapter to regional, state, and national competitions. Some of the business skills they learned included: professionalism and corporate branding; teamwork and the value of taking risks; the importance of marketing; more than one way to problem-solve, and officer duties and responsibilities. Business Professionals of America is today's students, tomorrow's business professionals. Pictured are advisor Tina VanSyckle, members Rayanna Demello, John Nulf, Kris Hulsebos, Alyssa Luna and Daniel Ankney.
