Charlotte High School Oriole PRIDE Winners

Over the last couple of weeks, Charlotte High School students have continued to show their Oriole PRIDE, demonstrating Purpose, Respect, Integrity, Dedication, and Excellence. Each of these students won a weekly drawing for the efforts.

Christin Landis showed dedication and excellence, and she won a free trial membership to SNAP Fitness, along with a SNAP Fitness water bottle.

Shy Suntken showed dedication, and she won an athletic boosters prize pack, donated by the Charlotte Optimist Club.

Kaylie Vinson showed excellence, and she won an Oriole sweatshirt, donated by the athletic boosters.

John Dykstra showed excellence, and he won tickets to Charlotte's Most Entertaining, donated by Your Charlotte Performing Arts Center.

Congratulations to all of our drawing winners, and excellent work by all students who showed PRIDE over the last few weeks!
