CHARLOTTE ATHLETES RECEIVE TOP LSJ HONORS

On Wednesday, May 30, Charlotte High School had some of its finest athletes recognized at the Lansing State Journal High School Sports Awards. In order to be recognized you had to be on one of the LSJ Dream Teams. Lansing State Journal then selected three finalists from each dream team to be eligible for Athlete of the Year for their sport. Charlotte was lucky enough to have two of its athletes selected as nominees for athlete of the year in their sport. Lauren Wietzke, who is a junior at CHS, was nominated for Competitive Cheer Athlete of the Year. Madison Burdick, CHS senior, was nominated for Girls Bowler Athlete of the Year and won it for the second year in a row!

Other athletes that were at the event were:

Jared Bishop - Boys Dream Team for Swimming

John O'Brian - Boys Dream Team for Football

Mackenzie Bleisch - Dream Team for Competitive Cheer

Maddy Conklin - Dream Team for Competitive Cheer

Lauren Wietzke - Dream Team for Competitive Cheer and Finalist for Athlete of the Year.

Madison Burdick - Dream Team and Athlete of the year for Girls Bowling

Abby Mather - Dream Team for Girls Bowling

Marissa Wood - Dream Team for Girls Bowling

Congratulations to all these athletes and their fine accomplishments this year. Go Orioles!
