CHS HONORS CAAC SENIOR SCHOLAR ATHLETES

The Charlotte Public Schools Athletic Department is proud to announce their 2019 Senior Scholar Athlete list. The Capital Area Activities Conference every year recognizes 10 senior athletes from each of the 19 CAAC schools. These senior athletes have earned at least two varsity letters and have the highest GPA in their class among athletes. This year's list is all young ladies who have shown excellence both on the field of competition and in the classroom. This year's CHS senior honorees are:

Lauren Anderson, Ashley Beck, Mackenzie Bleisch, Riley Cantwell, Madyson Conklin, Emma Eddy, Caroline Jones, Sophia Lupini, Lauryn Moubray, and Lauren Wietzke.

Congratulations to the student athletes and their families on this great honor.

There will be a special award ceremony at Holt High School on Wednesday, April 24 at 7pm for all of the CAAC Scholar Athletes and their families. Tim Staudt is the master of ceremony and this year's special guest speaker is former MSU basketball player, Tim Bograkos.

This year Lauren Anderson has also been chosen by the Michigan High School Athletic Association as a statewide scholar athlete earning a $1,000 scholarship. This is a prestigious award only given out to 32 high school seniors each year and it is the third time in the last 6 years CHS has had a recipient. The Charlotte Athletic Department is so proud of all its scholar athletes and thanks them for their hard work, commitment, and determination.

Go Orioles!
