

Did you know...both elementary schools opened new STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) science labs this Fall? Labs include the most up to date equipment and furnishings for students to experience hands on science activities using the scientific thinking process. #OriolePride