

In Session with the “Oriole” Superintendent

By, Mark D. Rosekrans, Superintendent of Charlotte Public Schools

CPS Welcomes New Staff for the 2015-16 School Year

Charlotte Public Schools will start the 2015-16 school year by welcoming twelve new staff members across our school district. Each member has been found to be an outstanding addition to our educational organization. This year, we sincerely welcome the following new staff members to our team:

- Ms. Misty Evenson – K-12 Math/Technology Instructional Data Specialist
- Ms. Julie Ferguson - Parkview Elementary Administrative Assistant
- Mr. Jeff Finney – Middle School Dean of Students
- Mr. Ross Juntilla – Middle School Teacher
- Ms. Allison Miller – Early Childhood Special Education/CUE Resource Room Teacher
- Mr. Daniel Mutz – Washington Elementary Paraprofessional
- Ms. Kathryn Parker – Washington Elementary Teacher
- Ms. Sarah Piggot – Middle School Teacher
- Ms. Amanda Rhoden – K-12 ELA/Technology Instructional Data Specialist
- Ms. Alisha Sheets – Washington Elementary Special Education teacher
- Ms. Jenifer Waligora – Charlotte Upper Elementary Teacher
- Ms. Megan Wonnacott - Charlotte Upper Elementary Teacher

All of our new employees bring quality characteristics and attributes which set them apart. They will add their expertise, education and work experiences to those of our existing staff members to help build a team that will benefit all of our students and families.

Please join me in welcoming our new 2015-2016 staff members to our school district and community. I know they all look forward to building positive relationships and working hard to increase our student achievement, performance and success.

Go Orioles! Oriole Pride!!
