Mrs. Converse (High School): "She has had all of my children in class, not only does she keep parents updated but if your child is struggling she goes the extra mile to make sure that they catch up and pass her class. She cares about her students even when they don't care about their grade at the time."

Ms. Bowhall (High School): "My daughter loves her. She said she's never had a more caring teacher. She tells the kids she wants them to succeed and she talks to them on their level. My daughter talks about this teacher all of the time. Anytime she is struggling she says Ms. B will help her."
