

SELF PROVIDING DISTRICT MONITOR REQUIREMENTS

Organizations or groups renting Charlotte Public Schools facilities that choose to provide an approved volunteer to serve as District Monitor must submit in writing a volunteer schedule including dates and contact numbers.

The District Monitor must meet requirements PRIOR to the beginning of the rental period

- Must be at least 21 years of age
- Must prove to be current in Adult and Infant/Child CPR certification or willing to obtain before rental event
- Must prove to be current in First Aide Certification or willing to obtain before rental event.
- Must pass a criminal history background check through the district
- Must have with them a working cell phone while serving as the monitor to be used to reach on call school district staff and/or 911 for emergencies
- Must possess the ability to enforce all rules and regulations set forth by the Charlotte Public Schools Facility and Grounds rental policies.

Those meeting the requirements will need to come to the Charlotte Aquatic Center Office to complete a volunteer background form, provide certifications of First Aid and CPR, and sign the District Monitor Waiver.
